Case No. 18-cv-05469-MMC

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS' MOTIONS TO COMPEL
ARBITRATION; STAYING CLAIMS

12
13 Before the Court are the following: (1) defendants David Marshall and Marshall
14 Wealth Management Group's ("Marshall Defendants") "Motion to Compel FINRA
15 Arbitration and Dismiss (or, in the Alternative, Stay) Case," filed August 21, 2020, and (2)
16 defendant Robert Jamison's ("Jamison") "Joinder to David Marshall and Marshall Wealth
17 Management Group's Motion to Compel Arbitration," filed September 1, 2020.<sup>1</sup> No
18 opposition to either motion has been filed.

19 Having read and considered the papers filed in support of the motions, the Court
20 deems both matters suitable for decision on the moving papers, hereby VACATES the 21 hearing scheduled for September 25, 2020, and finds plaintiffs entered into, with each of 22 the moving defendants, a valid arbitration agreement encompassing the claims alleged

23
24 _____
25 <sup>1</sup> By said "Joinder," Jamison seeks to (1) join the Marshall Defendants' above-
26 referenced motion to compel arbitration, and (2) compel arbitration of plaintiffs' claims 27 against him. The arbitration agreement between Jamison and plaintiffs, however, is 28 contained in a contract separate from that on which the Marshall Defendants rely. (See Joinder at 2:21-22 (stating, "[t]he Arbitration Agreement between Plaintiffs and Jamison is identical to the arbitration agreements at issue in the Marshall Defendants' motion").)
Accordingly, the Court treats Jamison's "Joinder" as a separate motion to compel arbitration.

1 against them in the above-titled action.

2 Accordingly, the motions to compel FINRA arbitration are hereby GRANTED, and
3 plaintiffs' claims against the moving defendants are hereby STAYED pending completion
4 of arbitration proceedings.
